■ Letters to Cleo, "Happy Ever After"

Together again after eight years, the Boston alt-rockers are wistful yet poppy in this previously unreleased track. They're at Bowery Ballroom on Thursday.

■ Ayurveda, "Porkchop"

The melodic hard rock band turns mystical guide in this haunting and head-banging track off their debut, "Being." They're at Fontana's on Thursday.

■ Rachel Platten, "Million Little Reasons"

The singer-songwriter blends sweet delicateness with pluck in this track off her self-titled album. She's at Mercury Lounge on Saturday.

■ Melanie Fiona, "Give It to Me Right"

Using the Zombies' "Time of the Season" as a backbeat, the Guyanese-Canadian singer puts a deeply soulful pop spin on this single off her February disc "The Bridge."

■ Bedsit Poets, "She's a Mystery"

This charmingly folksy tune from "Rendezvous" plays like a quiet contemplation on a rainy day — in a good way.
